

Mark was born and raised in southern Maine. That is where he attended the University of Southern Maine, and Graduated with a degree in Business Administration, and Marketing. After college he moved to Cincinnati to begin an internship at a marketing agency. While completing his internship he started working at "The Maisonette Restaurant". He quickly gained a passion for the hospitality industry. While at the Maisonette he was recruited to open Ivy Hills Country Club as their Food and Beverage Manager. That is where he began his career in private club industry. In 1998 he moved to Naples. He spent the next ten years as the Food and Beverage Manager at the Bay Colony Beach Club. He has spent the last six years at Longshore Lake country club.

Along the way Mark develop a deep passion for wine. He was fortune enough to attend the Windows on the World wine course in the world trade center in the late 90's. Later he received his level one certification as a Sommelier for the Court of Master Sommeliers. He looks forward to talking wine with the members and providing new and exciting wines for them to enjoy.

Mark has been proudly married to his wife for 14 years. She is also a hospitality professional. Their greatest treasure is their daughter "Katie".
